2.0 Maximum Income Limits.

- 2.1 Effective with respect to plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, and before January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of a plan participant which exceeds $150,000 (as indexed under section 401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) shall be disregarded for purposes of determining benefits or employee contributions. Effective only for the 1996 plan year, in determining the compensation of an employee eligible for consideration, ~~under this plan section the Rules of Section 414(g)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ shall apply, except that in applying such rules, the term "family" shall include only the spouse of the member and any lineal descendants of the employee who have not attained age nineteen (19) before the close of the year.
- 2.2 Effective with respect to plan years beginning on and after January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of a plan participant which exceeds $200,000, as adjusted for cost-of-living increases in accordance with ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, may not be taken into account in determining benefits or employee contributions for any plan year. Annual compensation means compensation during the plan year or such other consecutive twelve (12) month period over which compensation is otherwise determined under the plan (the determination period). The cost-of-living adjustment in effect for a calendar year applies to annual compensation for the determination period that begins with or within such calendar year. If the determination period consists of fewer than twelve (12) months, the annual compensation limit is an amount equal to the otherwise applicable annual compensation limit multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months in the short determination period, and the denominator of which is twelve (12). If the compensation for any prior determination period is taken into account in determining a plan participant's contributions or benefits for the current plan year, the compensation for such prior determination period is subject to the applicable annual compensation limit in effect for that prior period.
- 2.3 The limits referenced in ~~paragraphs~~ rules 2.1 and 2.2 above apply only to years beginning after December 31, 1995, and only to individuals who first become plan participants in plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996. Individuals who become plan participants of before plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, are not subject to the limits of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Instead, pursuant to section 13212(d)(3)(A) of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 (OBRA '93), and the regulations issued under that section, the annual compensation in effect under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 does not apply to any such plan participant in any plan year.

3.0 Trustee Transfers.

This ~~section~~ rule applies to distributions made on and after January 1, 1993. A distributee may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a transfer made from the Pension Fund.

- 3.1 Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or the life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income; and any other distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during the year. Effective January 1, 2002, a portion of a distribution will not fail to be an eligible rollover distribution merely because the portion consists of after-tax employee contributions that are not includible in gross income. However, such non-taxable portion may be transferred only to an individual retirement account or annuity described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 408(a) or (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or, in addition, on or after January 1, 2007, to a qualified defined benefit plan described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or to an annuity contract described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred (and earnings thereon), including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible.

- 3.2 Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is any of the following that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution:
- 3.2.1 An individual retirement account described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 408(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 3.2.2 An individual retirement annuity described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 408(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 3.2.3 An annuity plan described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 403(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 3.2.4 A qualified trust described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 3.2.5 Effective January 1, 2002, an annuity contract described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 3.2.6 Effective January 1, 2002, a plan eligible under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 that is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or a political subdivision of a state that agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into the plan from the Pension Fund, or
 - 3.2.7 Effective January 1, 2008, a Roth IRA described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 408A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 3.3 Effective January 1, 2002, the definition of eligible rollover distribution also includes a distribution to a surviving spouse, or to a spouse or former spouse who is an alternate payee under a domestic relations order, as defined in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 3.4 Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. It also includes the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Effective July 1, 2007, a distributee further includes a nonspouse beneficiary who is a designated beneficiary as defined by ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a)(9)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. However, a nonspouse beneficiary may rollover the distribution only to an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity established for the purpose of receiving the distribution and the account or annuity will be treated as an "inherited" individual retirement account or annuity.
- 3.5 Direct Rollover. A direct rollover is a payment by the Pension Fund to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

4.0 Maximum Benefit Limits and Maximum Contribution Limits.

- 4.1 Employee contributions paid to, and retirement benefits paid from, the Pension Fund may not exceed the annual limits on contributions and benefits, respectively, allowed by ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 4.2 For purposes of applying these limits only and for no other purpose, the definition of compensation where applicable will be compensation actually paid or made available during a limitation year, except as noted below and as permitted by Treasury Regulation ~~Section~~ §1.415(c)-(2), or successor regulation. Specifically, compensation will be defined as wages within the meaning of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 3401(a) and all other payments of compensation to an employee by an employer for which the employer is required to furnish the employee a written statement under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ sections 6041(d), 6051(a)(3) and 6052 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Compensation will be determined without regard to any rules under Internal Revenue Code Section 3401(a) that limit the remuneration included in wages based on the nature or location of the employment or the services performed (such as the exception for agricultural labor in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 3401(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 4.2.1 However, for limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, compensation will also include amounts that would otherwise be included in compensation but for the an election under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ sections 125(a), 402(e)(3), 402(h)(1)(B), 402(k), or 457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. For limitation years beginning after December 30, 2000, compensation will also include any elective amounts that are not includible in the gross income of the employee by reason of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 132(f)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

4.2.2 The definition of compensation will exclude employee contributions picked up under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 414(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

4.2.3 For limitation years beginning on and after January 1, 2007, compensation for the limitation year will also include compensation paid by the later of 2 ½ months after an employee's severance from employment or the end of the limitation year that includes the date of the employee's severance from employment if the payment is regular compensation for services during the employee's regular working hours, or compensation for services outside the employee's regular working hours (such as overtime or shift differential), commissions, bonuses or other similar payments, and, absent a severance from employment, the payments would have been paid to the employee while the employee continue in employment with the employer.

4.2.3.1 Compensation shall also include payments for unused accrued bona fide sick, vacation or other leave that the member would have been able to use if employment had continued; and payments pursuant to a nonqualified unfunded deferred compensation plan, but only if the payments would have been paid to the member at the same time if the member had continued employment with the employer and only to the extent that the payment is includible in the member's gross income.

4.2.3.2 Any payments not described above are not considered compensation if paid after severance from employment, even if they are paid within 2½ months following severance from employment, except for payments to the individual who does not currently perform services for the employer by reason of qualified military service (within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) to the extent these payments do not exceed the amounts the individual would have received if the individual had continued to perform services for the employer rather than entering qualified military service.

4.2.4 Back pay, within the meaning of Treasury Regulation §1.415(c)-2(g)(8), shall be treated as compensation for the limitation year to which the back pay relates to the extent the back pay represents wages and compensation that would otherwise be included under this definition.

4.2.5 An employee who is in qualified military service (within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) shall be treated as receiving compensation from the employer during such period of qualified military service equal to (i) the compensation the employee would have received during such period if the employee were not in qualified military service, determined based on the rate of pay the employee would have received from the employer but for the absence during the period of qualified military service, or (ii) if the compensation the employee would have received during such period was not reasonably certain, the employee's average compensation from the employer during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the qualified military service (or, if shorter, the period of employment immediately preceding the qualified military service).

4.3 Before January 1, 1995, a plan participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the limits specified in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, subject to the applicable adjustments in that section. On and after January 1, 1995, a plan participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the dollar amount specified in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, subject to the applicable adjustments in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

4.4 On and after January 1, 2009, for purposes of applying the limits under ~~Internal Code~~ section 415(b) (Limit) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the following will apply:

4.4.1 A plan participant's applicable Limit will be applied to the plan participant's annual benefit in the first limitation year without regard to any automatic cost of living increases;

4.4.2 To the extent the plan participant's annual benefit equals or exceeds the Limit, the plan participant will no longer be eligible for cost of living increases until such time as the benefit plus the accumulated increases are less than the Limit; and

4.4.3 Thereafter, in any subsequent limitation year, the plan participant's annual benefit including any automatic cost of living increase applicable shall be tested under the then applicable benefit limit including any adjustment to the ~~Code~~ section 415(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 dollar limit under ~~Code~~ section 415(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the regulations thereunder.; ~~and~~

4.5 In no event shall a plan participant's annual benefit payable from the Pension Fund in any limitation year be greater than the limit applicable at the annuity starting date, as increased in subsequent years pursuant to ~~Code~~ section 415(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the regulations thereunder. If the form of benefit without regard to the automatic benefit increase feature is not a straight life annuity or a qualified joint and survivor annuity, then the preceding sentence is applied by ~~reducing the Code section 415(b) limit applicable at the annuity starting date~~ adjusting the form of benefit to an actuarially equivalent amount (determined using the assumptions specified in Treasury Regulation § 1.415(b)-1(c)(2)(ii)) that takes into account the ~~death~~ additional benefits under the form of benefit as follows:

4.5.1 For a benefit paid in a form to which section 417(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 does not apply (generally, a monthly benefit), the actuarially equivalent straight life annuity benefit that is the greater of:

4.5.1.1 The annual amount of the straight life annuity (if any) payable to the member under the plan commencing at the same annuity starting date as the form of benefit to the member, or

4.5.1.2 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the form of benefit payable to the member, computed using a 5% interest assumption (or the applicable statutory interest assumption) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables described in Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Rulings 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986).

4.5.2 For a benefit paid in a form to which section 417(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 applies (generally, a lump sum benefit), the actuarially equivalent straight life annuity benefit that is the greatest of:

4.5.2.1 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable, computed using the interest rate and mortality table, or tabular factor, specified in the plan for actuarial equivalence;

4.5.2.2 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable, computed using a 5.5 percent interest assumption (or the applicable statutory interest assumption) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (the mortality table specified in Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Ruling 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986); or

4.5.2.3 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable (computed using the applicable interest rate for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(3) (the 30-year Treasury rate (prior to January 1 2007, using the rate in effect for the month prior to retirement, and on and after January 1, 2007, using the rate in effect for the first day of the plan year with a one-year stabilization period)) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (the mortality table specified in Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Ruling 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986), divided by 1.05.

4.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Board may modify a request by a plan participant to make a contribution to the Pension Fund if the amount of the contribution would exceed the limits provided in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 by using the following methods:

4.6.1 If the law requires a lump sum payment for the purchase of service credit, the Board may establish a periodic payment plan for the plan participant to avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ sections 415(c) or 415(n) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

4.6.2 If payment pursuant to paragraph 4.6.1 will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits imposed by ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the Board may either reduce the plan participant's contribution to an amount within the limits of that section or refuse the plan participant's contribution.

4.7 Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, if a plan participant makes one or more contribution to purchase permissive service credit under the Pension Fund, then the requirements of this section will be treated as met only if:

- 4.7.1 The requirements of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are met, determined by treating the accrued benefit derived from all such contributions as an annual benefit for purposes of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or
- 4.7.2 The requirements of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are met, determined by treating all such contributions as annual additions for purposes of ~~Code~~ section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- For purposes of applying ~~subparagraph~~ Rule 4.7.1 the Pension Fund will not fail to meet the reduced limit under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(b)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 solely by reason of this ~~paragraph~~ 10.16.7 Rule 4.7, and for purposes of applying ~~subparagraph~~ Rule 4.7.2 the Pension Fund will not fail to meet the percentage limitation under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(c)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 solely by reason of this ~~paragraph~~ Rule 4.7.
- 4.7.3 For purposes of this ~~paragraph (g)~~ Rule 4.7 the term "permissive service credit" means service credit.
- 4.7.3.1 Recognized by the Pension Fund for purposes of calculating a plan participant's benefit under the Pension Fund,
- 4.7.3.2 Which such plan participant has not received under the Pension Fund, and
- 4.7.3.3 Which such plan participant may receive only by making a voluntary additional contribution, in an amount determined under the Pension Fund, which does not exceed the amount necessary to fund the benefit attributable to such service credit.

2.0 Maximum Income Limits.

- 2.1 Effective with respect to plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, and before January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of a plan participant which exceeds $150,000 (as indexed under ~~§section 401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~) shall be disregarded for purposes of determining benefits or employee contributions. Effective only for the 1996 plan year, in determining the compensation of an employee eligible for consideration ~~under this plan~~ section the ~~Rules of~~ section 414(g)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall apply, except that in applying such rules, the term "family" shall include only the spouse of the member and any lineal descendants of the employee who have not attained age nineteen (19) before the close of the year.

- 2.2 Effective with respect to plan years beginning on and after January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of a plan participant which exceeds $200,000, as adjusted for cost-of-living increases in accordance with ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a)(17)(B) Internal Revenue Code of 1986, may not be taken into account in determining benefits or employee contributions for any plan year. Annual compensation means compensation during the plan year or such other consecutive twelve (12) month period over which compensation is otherwise determined under the plan (the determination period). The cost-of-living adjustment in effect for a calendar year applies to annual compensation for the determination period that begins with or within such calendar year. If the determination period consists of fewer than twelve (12) months, the annual compensation limit is an amount equal to the otherwise applicable annual compensation limit multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months in the short determination period, and the denominator of which is twelve (12). If the compensation for any prior determination period is taken into account in determining a plan participant's contributions or benefits for the current plan year, the compensation for such prior determination period is subject to the applicable annual compensation limit in effect for that prior period.
- 2.3 The limits referenced in ~~paragraphs~~ Rules 2.1 and 2.2 above apply only to years beginning after December 31, 1995, and only to individuals who first become plan participants in plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996. 3.0 Trustee Transfers.

This ~~section~~ Rule applies to distributions made on and after January 1, 1993. A distributee may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a transfer made from the Pension Fund.

- 3.1 Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or the life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a)(9) Internal Revenue Code of 1986; the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income; and any other distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during the year. Effective January 1, 2002, a portion of a distribution will not fail to be an eligible rollover distribution merely because the portion consists of after-tax employee contributions that are not includible in gross income. However, such non-taxable portion may be transferred only to an individual retirement account or annuity described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 408(a) or (b) Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a) Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or, in addition, on or after January 1, 2007, to a qualified defined benefit plan described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 401(a) Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or to an annuity contract described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 403(b) Internal Revenue Code of 1986, that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred (and earnings thereon), including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible.
- 3.2 Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is any of the following that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution:
- 3.2.1 ~~a~~An individual retirement account described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 408(a) Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 3.2.2 ~~a~~An individual retirement annuity described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 408(b) Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 3.2.3 ~~a~~An annuity plan described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 403(a) Internal Revenue Code of 1986,

4.5.2.1 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable, computed using the interest rate and mortality table, or tabular factor, specified in the plan for actuarial equivalence;

4.5.2.2 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable, computed using a 5.5

percent interest assumption (or the applicable statutory interest assumption) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (the mortality table specified in Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Ruling 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986); or

4.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Board may modify a request by a plan participant to make a contribution to the Pension Fund if the amount of the contribution would exceed the limits provided in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415 Internal Revenue Code of 1986 by using the following methods:

4.6.1 If the law requires a lump sum payment for the purchase of service credit, the Board may establish a periodic payment plan for the plan participant to avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ sections 415(c) or 415(n) Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

4.6.2 If payment pursuant to paragraph 4.6.1 will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits imposed by ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(c) Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the Board may either reduce the plan participant's contribution to an amount within the limits of that section or refuse the plan participant's contribution.

4.7 Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, if a plan participant makes one or more contribution to purchase permissive service credit under the Pension Fund, then the requirements of this section will be treated as met only if:

4.7.1 The requirements of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(b) Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are met, determined by treating the accrued benefit derived from all such contributions as an annual benefit for purposes of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(b) Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or

4.7.2 The requirements of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(c) Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are met, determined by treating all such contributions as annual additions for purposes of ~~Code~~ section 415(c) Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

For purposes of applying ~~subparagraph~~ Rule 4.7.1 the Pension Fund will not fail to meet the reduced limit under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(b)(2)(C) Internal Revenue Code of 1986 solely by reason of this paragraph 4.7, and for purposes of applying ~~subparagraph~~ Rule 4.7.2 the Pension Fund will not fail to meet the percentage limitation under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(c)(1)(B) Internal Revenue Code of 1986 solely by reason of ~~this paragraph~~ Rule 4.7.

4.7.3 For purposes of this ~~paragraph (g)~~ Rule 4.7 the term "permissive service credit" means service credit:

4.7.3.1 Recognized by the Pension Fund for purposes of calculating a plan participant's benefit under the Pension Fund,

4.7.3.2 Which such plan participant has not received under the Pension Fund, and

4.7.3.3 Which such plan participant may receive only by making a voluntary additional contribution, in an amount determined under the Pension Fund, which does not exceed the amount necessary to fund the benefit attributable to such service credit.

Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, such term may include service credit for periods for which there is no performance of service, and, notwithstanding ~~clause~~ Rule 4.7.3.3, may include service credited in order to provide an increased benefit for service credit which a plan participant is receiving under the Pension Fund.

4.7.4 The Pension Fund will fail to meet the requirements of this ~~paragraph~~ Rule 4.7 if:

- 4.7.4.1 More than five (5) years of nonqualified service credit are taken into account for purposes of this ~~paragraph~~ Rule 4.7.4, or
- 4.7.4.2 Any nonqualified service credit is taken into account under this ~~paragraph~~ Rule 4.7 before the plan participant has at least five years of participation under the Pension Fund.
- 4.7.5 For purposes of ~~paragraph~~ Rule 4.7.4, effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, the term "nonqualified service credit" means permissive service credit other than that allowed with respect to:
 - 4.7.5.1 Service (including parental, medical, sabbatical, and similar leave) as an employee of the Government of the United States, any State or political subdivision thereof, or any agency or instrumentality of any of the foregoing (other than military service or service for credit which was obtained as a result of a repayment described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(k)(3)) Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 4.7.5.2 Service (including parental, medical, sabbatical, and similar leave) as an employee (other than as an employee described in clause (i)) of an education organization described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) Internal Revenue Code of 1986 which is a public, private, or sectarian school which provides elementary or secondary education (through grade 12), or a comparable level of education, as determined under the applicable law of the jurisdiction in which the service was performed,
 - 4.7.5.3 Service as an employee of an association of employees who are described in ~~clause~~ Rule 4.7.5.1, or
 - 4.7.5.4 Military service (other than qualified military service under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 414(u)) Internal Revenue Code of 1986 recognized by such governmental plan.
- 4.7.6 In the case of service described in ~~clause~~ Rules 4.7.5.1, 4.7.5.2, or 4.7.5.3, such service will be nonqualified service if recognition of such service would cause a plan participant to receive a retirement benefit for the same service under more than one plan.
 - 4.7.6.1 In the case of a trustee-to-trustee transfer after December 31, 2001, to which ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 403(b)(13)(A) or 457(e)(17)(A) Internal Revenue Code of 1986 applies (without regard to whether the transfer is made between plans maintained by the same employer):
 - 4.7.6.1.1 The limitations of ~~subparagraph~~ Rule 4.7.5 will not apply in determining whether the transfer is for the purchase of permissive service credit, and
 - 4.7.6.1.2 The distribution rules applicable under federal law to the Pension Fund will apply to such amounts and any benefits attributable to such amounts.
 - 4.7.6.2 For an eligible plan participant, the limitation of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415(c)(1) Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall not be applied to reduce the amount of permissive service credit which may be purchased to an amount less than the amount which was allowed to be purchased under the terms of the Delaware Code as in effect on August 5, 1997. For purposes of this ~~subparagraph~~ Rule 4.7.6.2 4.7.7, an eligible plan participant is an individual who first became a plan participant in the Pension Fund before January 1, 1998.
- 4.8 For purposes of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ section 415 Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the limitation year is the calendar year January 1 through December 31.

The Military Service credit provisions of this section are to be interpreted so as not to diminish any other rights relating to military service that may be granted under state law.
- 5.2 Beginning January 1, 2009, to the extent required by section 414(u)(12) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, an individual receiving differential wage payments (as defined under section 3401(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) from an employer shall be treated as employed by that employer, and the differential wage payment shall be treated as compensation for purposes of applying the limits on annual additions under section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. This provision shall be applied to all similarly situated individuals in a reasonably equivalent manner.
- 5.3 Effective with respect to deaths occurring on or after January 1, 2007, while a member is performing qualified military service (as defined in chapter 43 of title 38, United States Code), to the extent required by section 401(a)(37) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, survivors of a member in a State or local retirement or pension system, are entitled to any additional benefits that the system would provide if the member had

Ch. 60A~~. Salary shall not include payments in the nature of reimbursement or allowance for expenses.

2.0 Maximum Income Limits.

- 2.1 Effective with respect to plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, and before January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of a plan participant which exceeds $150,000 (as indexed under ~~Section 401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~) shall be disregarded for purposes of determining benefits or employee contributions. Effective only for the 1996 plan year, in determining the compensation of an employee eligible for consideration ~~under this plan section, the Rules of Section 414(gg)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ shall apply, except that in applying such rules, the term "family" shall include only the spouse of the member and any lineal descendants of the employee who have not attained age nineteen (19) before the close of the year.
- 2.2 Effective with respect to plan years beginning on and after January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of a plan participant which exceeds $200,000, as adjusted for cost-of-living increases in accordance with ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~, may not be taken into account in determining benefits or employee contributions for any plan year. Annual compensation means compensation during the plan year or such other consecutive twelve (12)-month period over which compensation is otherwise determined under the plan (the determination period). The cost-of-living adjustment in effect for a calendar year applies to annual compensation for the determination period that begins with or within such calendar year. If the determination period consists of fewer than twelve (12) months, the annual compensation limit is an amount equal to the otherwise applicable annual compensation limit multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months in the short determination period, and the denominator of which is twelve (12). If the compensation for any prior determination period is taken into account in determining a plan participant's contributions or benefits for the current plan year, the compensation for such prior determination period is subject to the applicable annual compensation limit in effect for that prior period.
- 2.3 The limits referenced in paragraphs ~~40-14.1 2.1 and 40-14.2 2.2~~ above apply only to years beginning after December 31, 1995, and only to individuals who first become plan participants in plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996. Individuals who become plan participants of before plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, are not subject to the limits of ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code~~. Instead, pursuant to ~~Section 13212(d)(3)(A) of OBRA '93 Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993~~, and the regulations issued under that section, the annual compensation in effect under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ does not apply to any such plan participant in any plan year.

3.0 Trustee Transfers

This ~~section~~ Rule applies to distributions made on and after January 1, 1993. A distributee may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a transfer made from the Pension Fund.

- 3.1 Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or the life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~; the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income; and any other distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during the year. Effective January 1, 2002, a portion of a distribution will not fail to be an eligible rollover distribution merely because the portion consists of after-tax employee contributions that are not includible in gross income. However, such non-taxable portion may be transferred only to an individual retirement account or annuity described in ~~Internal Revenue Code Sections 408(a) or (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~, or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a), or, in addition, on or after January 1, 2007, to a qualified defined benefit plan described in Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a) or to an annuity contract described in Internal Revenue Code Section 403(b), that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred (and earnings thereon), including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible.
- 3.2 Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is any of the following that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution:
 - 3.2.1 ~~a~~An individual retirement account described in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 408(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~,
 - 3.2.2 ~~a~~An individual retirement annuity described in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 408(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~,
 - 3.2.3 ~~a~~An annuity plan described in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 403(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~,
 - 3.2.4 ~~a~~A qualified trust described in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~,
 - 3.2.5 ~~e~~Effective January 1, 2002, an annuity contract described in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~,
 - 3.2.6 ~~e~~Effective January 1, 2002, a plan eligible under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ that is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or a political subdivision of a state that agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into the plan from the Pension Fund, or
 - 3.2.7 ~~e~~Effective January 1, 2008, a Roth IRA described in ~~section 408A of the Internal Revenue Code Section 408A of 1986~~.
- 3.3 Effective January 1, 2002, the definition of eligible rollover distribution also includes a distribution to a surviving spouse, or to a spouse or former spouse who is an alternate payee under a domestic relations order, as defined in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~.
- 3.4 Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. It also includes the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~. Effective July 1, 2007, a distributee further includes a nonspouse beneficiary who is a designated beneficiary as defined by ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(9)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~. However, a nonspouse beneficiary may rollover the distribution only to an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity established for the purpose of receiving the distribution and the account or annuity will be treated as an "inherited" individual retirement account or annuity.
- 3.5 Direct Rollover. A direct rollover is a payment by the Pension Fund to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

4.0 Maximum Benefit Limits and Maximum Contribution Limits.

- 4.1 Employee contributions paid to, and retirement benefits paid from, the Pension Fund may not exceed the annual limits on contributions and benefits, respectively, allowed by section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code Section 415 of 1986.

- 4.2 For purposes of applying these limits only and for no other purpose, the definition of compensation where applicable will be compensation actually paid or made available during a limitation year, except as noted below and as permitted by Treasury Regulation ~~Section~~ §1.415(c)-(2), or successor regulation. Specifically, compensation will be defined as wages within the meaning of ~~Internal Revenue Code Section~~ 3401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and all other payments of compensation to an employee by an employer for which the employer is required to furnish the employee a written statement under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section~~ 6041(d), 6051(a)(3) and 6052 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Compensation will be determined without regard to any rules under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section~~ 3401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 that limit the remuneration included in wages based on the nature or location of the employment or the services performed (such as the exception for agricultural labor in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section~~ 3401(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986).
- 4.2.1 However, for limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, compensation will also include amounts that would otherwise be included in compensation but for the an election under ~~Internal Revenue Code Sections~~ 125(a), 402(e)(3), 402(h)(1)(B), 402(k), or 457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. For limitation years beginning after December 30, 2000, compensation will also include any elective amounts that are not includible in the gross income of the employee by reason of ~~Internal Revenue Code Section~~ 132(f)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 4.2.2 The definition of compensation will exclude employee contributions picked up under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section~~ 414(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 4.2.3 For limitation years beginning on and after January 1, 2007, compensation for the limitation year will also include compensation paid by the later of 2 ½ months after an employee's severance from employment or the end of the limitation year that includes the date of the employee's severance from employment if the payment is regular compensation for services during the employee's regular working hours, or compensation for services outside the employee's regular working hours (such as overtime or shift differential), commissions, bonuses or other similar payments, and, absent a severance from employment, the payments would have been paid to the employee while the employee continue in employment with the employer.
- Compensation shall also include payments for unused accrued bona fide sick, vacation or other leave that the member would have been able to use if employment had continued; and payments pursuant to a nonqualified unfunded deferred compensation plan, but only if the payments would have been paid to the member at the same time if the member had continued employment with the employer and only to the extent that the payment is includible in the member's gross income.
- Any payments not described above are not considered compensation if paid after severance from employment, even if they are paid within 2½ months following severance from employment, except for payments to the individual who does not currently perform services for the employer by reason of qualified military service (within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) to the extent these payments do not exceed the amounts the individual would have received if the individual had continued to perform services for the employer rather than entering qualified military service.
- 4.2.4 "Back pay", within the meaning of ~~Treas. Reg.~~ Treasury Regulation §1.415(c)-2(g)(8), shall be treated as compensation for the limitation year to which the back pay relates to the extent the back pay represents wages and compensation that would otherwise be included under this definition.
- 4.2.5 An employee who is in qualified military service (within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) shall be treated as receiving compensation from the employer during such period of qualified military service equal to (i) the compensation the employee would have received during such period if the employee were not in qualified military service, determined based on the rate of pay the employee would have received from the employer but for the absence during the period of qualified military service, or (ii) if the compensation the employee would have received during such period was not reasonably certain, the employee's average compensation from the employer during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the qualified military service (or, if shorter, the period of employment immediately preceding the qualified military service).
- 4.3 Before January 1, 1995, a plan participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the limits specified in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section~~ 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, subject to the applicable adjustments in that section. On and after January 1, 1995, a plan participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the dollar amount specified in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section~~ 415(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, subject to the applicable adjustments in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section~~ 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 4.4 On and after January 1, 2009, for purposes of applying the limits under ~~Internal Code Section~~ 415(b) (Limit) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the following will apply:

- 4.4.1 ~~a~~A plan participant's applicable Limit will be applied to the plan participant's annual benefit in the first limitation year without regard to any automatic cost of living increases;
- 4.4.2 ~~†~~To the extent the plan participant's annual benefit equals or exceeds the Limit, the plan participant will no longer be eligible for cost of living increases until such time as the benefit plus the accumulated increases are less than the Limit; and
- 4.4.3 ~~†~~Thereafter, in any subsequent limitation year, the plan participant's annual benefit including any automatic cost of living increase applicable shall be tested under the then applicable benefit limit including any adjustment to the ~~Code Section 415(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ dollar limit under ~~Code Section 415(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ and the regulations thereunder; ~~and~~.
- 4.5 In no event shall a plan participant's annual benefit payable from the Pension Fund in any limitation year be greater than the limit applicable at the annuity starting date, as increased in subsequent years pursuant to ~~Code Section 415(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ and the regulations thereunder. If the form of benefit without regard to the automatic benefit increase feature is not a straight life annuity of a qualified joint and survivor annuity, then the preceding sentence is applied by ~~reducing the Code Section 415(b) limit applicable at the annuity starting date~~ adjusting the form of benefit to an actuarially equivalent amount ~~{determined using the assumptions specified in Treasury Regulation §1.415(b)-1(c)(2)(ii)}~~ that takes into account the ~~death~~ additional benefits under the form of benefit. as follows:
 - 4.5.1 For a benefit paid in a form to which section 417(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 does not apply (generally, a monthly benefit), the actuarially equivalent straight life annuity benefit that is the greater of:
 - 4.5.1.1 The annual amount of the straight life annuity (if any) payable to the member under the plan commencing at the same annuity starting date as the form of benefit to the member, or
 - 4.5.1.2 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the form of benefit payable to the member, computed using a 5% interest assumption (or the applicable statutory interest assumption) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables described in Treasury Regulation §1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Rulings 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986).
 - 4.5.2 For a benefit paid in a form to which section 417(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 applies (generally, a lump sum benefit), the actuarially equivalent straight life annuity benefit that is the greatest of:
 - 4.5.2.1 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable, computed using the interest rate and mortality table, or tabular factor, specified in the plan for actuarial equivalence;
 - 4.5.2.2 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable, computed using a 5.5 percent interest assumption (or the applicable statutory interest assumption) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (the mortality table specified in Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Ruling 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986); or
 - 4.5.2.3 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable (computed using the applicable interest rate for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(3) (the 30-year Treasury rate (prior to January 1 2007, using the rate in effect for the month prior to retirement, and on and after January 1, 2007, using the rate in effect for the first day of the plan year with a one-year stabilization period)) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (the mortality table specified in Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Ruling 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986), divided by 1.05.

- 4.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Board may modify a request by a plan participant to make a contribution to the Pension Fund if the amount of the contribution would exceed the limits provided in section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code Section 415 of 1986 by using the following methods:
- 4.6.1 If the law requires a lump sum payment for the purchase of service credit, the Board may establish a periodic payment plan for the plan participant to avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under ~~Internal Revenue Code Sections 415(c) or 415(n) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~.
- 4.6.2 If payment pursuant to paragraph Rule 4.6.1 will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits imposed by ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~, the Board may either reduce the plan participant's contribution to an amount within the limits of that section or refuse the plan participant's contribution.
- 4.7 Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, if a plan participant makes one or more contribution to purchase permissive service credit under the Pension Fund, then the requirements of this section will be treated as met only if:
- 4.7.1 ~~¶~~The requirements of ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ are met, determined by treating the accrued benefit derived from all such contributions as an annual benefit for purposes of ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~, or
- 4.7.2 ~~¶~~The requirements of ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ are met, determined by treating all such contributions as annual additions for purposes of ~~Code Section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~.
- For purposes of applying subparagraph Rule 4.7.1 the Pension Fund will not fail to meet the reduced limit under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 415(b)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ solely by reason of this paragraph Rule 4.7, and for purposes of applying subparagraph Rule 4.7.2 the Pension Fund will not fail to meet the percentage limitation under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 415(c)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ solely by reason of this paragraph Rule 4.7.
- 4.7.3 For purposes of this ~~paragraph (g)~~ Rule 4.7 the term "permissive service credit" means service credit:
- 4.7.3.1 Recognized by the Pension Fund for purposes of calculating a plan participant's benefit under the Pension Fund,
- 4.7.3.2 Which such plan participant has not received under the Pension Fund, and
- 4.7.3.3 Which such plan participant may receive only by making a voluntary additional contribution, in an amount determined under the Pension Fund, which does not exceed the amount necessary to fund the benefit attributable to such service credit.
- Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, such term may include service credit for periods for which there is no performance of service, and, notwithstanding ~~clause Rule 4.7.3.3~~, may include service credited in order to provide an increased benefit for service credit which a plan participant is receiving under the Pension Fund.
- 4.7.4 The Pension Fund will fail to meet the requirements of this paragraph Rule 4.7 if:
- 4.7.4.1 More than five (5) years of nonqualified service credit are taken into account for purposes of this paragraph Rule 4.7.4, or
- 4.7.4.2 ~~a~~Any nonqualified service credit is taken into account under this paragraph Rule 4.7 before the plan participant has at least five (5) years of participation under the Pension Fund.
- 4.7.5 For purposes of paragraph Rule 4.7.4, effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, the term "nonqualified service credit" means permissive service credit other than that allowed with respect to:
- 4.7.5.1 Service (including parental, medical, sabbatical, and similar leave) as an employee of the Government of the United States, any State or political subdivision thereof, or any agency or instrumentality of any of the foregoing (other than military service or service for credit which was obtained as a result of a repayment described in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 415(k)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~),
- 4.7.5.2 Service (including parental, medical, sabbatical, and similar leave) as an employee (other than as an employee described in ~~clause (i) Rule 4.7.5.1~~) of an education organization described in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ which is a public, private, or sectarian school which provides elementary or secondary education (through ~~g~~Grade 12), or a comparable level of education, as determined under the applicable law of the jurisdiction in which the service was performed,
- 4.7.5.3 Service as an employee of an association of employees who are described in ~~clause Rule 4.7.5.1~~, or

4.7.5.4 Military service (other than qualified military service under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 414(u) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~) recognized by such governmental plan.

In the case of service described in ~~clause Rules~~ 4.7.5.1, 4.7.5.2, or 4.7.5.3, such service will be nonqualified service if recognition of such service would cause a plan participant to receive a retirement benefit for the same service under more than one plan.

4.7.6 In the case of a trustee-to-trustee transfer after December 31, 2001, to which ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 403(b)(13)(A) or 457(e)(17)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ applies (without regard to whether the transfer is made between plans maintained by the same employer):

4.7.6.1 ~~¶~~The limitations of ~~subparagraph 4.7.5 Rule 4.7.4~~ will not apply in determining whether the transfer is for the purchase of permissive service credit, and

4.7.6.2 ~~¶~~The distribution rules applicable under federal law to the Pension Fund will apply to such amounts and any benefits attributable to such amounts.

4.7.7 For an eligible plan participant, the limitation of ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 415(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ shall not be applied to reduce the amount of permissive service credit which may be purchased to an amount less than the amount which was allowed to be purchased under the terms of the Delaware Code as in effect on August 5, 1997. For purposes of this ~~subparagraph Rule~~ 4.7.7, an eligible plan participant is an individual who first became a plan participant in the Pension Fund before January 1, 1998.

4.8 For purposes of section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code ~~Section 415 of 1986~~, the limitation year is ~~the calendar year~~ January 1 through December 31.

The Military Service credit provisions of this section are to be interpreted so as not to diminish any other rights relating to military service that may be granted under state law, including 11 Del.C., ch. 88 §8369 and 11 Del.C., ch. 88 §8375.

This provision shall be applied to all similarly situated individuals in a reasonably equivalent manner.

Effective with respect to deaths occurring on or after January 1, 2007, while a member is performing qualified military service (as defined in chapter 43 of title 38, United States Code), to the extent required by section 401(a)(37) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, survivors of a member in a State or local retirement or pension system, are entitled to any additional benefits that the system would provide if the member had resumed employment and then died, such as accelerated vesting or survivor benefits that are contingent on the member's death while employed. 9.3.5 If a plan participant dies before required distribution of the plan participant's benefits has begun, the plan participant's entire interest must be either

9.3.5.1 ~~d~~Distributed (in accordance with federal regulations under section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) over the life or life expectancy of the designated survivor under state law, with the distributions beginning no later than December 31 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year of the plan participant's death, or

2.0 Maximum Income Limits.

- 2.1 Effective with respect to plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, and before January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of a plan participant which exceeds $150,000 (as indexed under ~~§section 401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~) shall be disregarded for purposes of determining benefits or employee contributions. Effective only for the 1996 plan year, in determining the compensation of an employee eligible for consideration under this plan section, ~~the Rules of Section 414(gg)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ shall apply, except that in applying such rules, the term "family" shall include only the spouse of the member and any lineal descendants of the employee who have not attained age nineteen (19) before the close of the year.
- 2.2 Effective with respect to plan years beginning on and after January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of a plan participant which exceeds $200,000, as adjusted for cost-of-living increases in accordance with ~~Internal~~ ~~Revenue Code~~ Section 401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, may not be taken into account in determining benefits or employee contributions for any plan year. Annual compensation means compensation during the plan year or such other consecutive twelve (12)-month period over which compensation is otherwise determined under the plan (the determination period). The cost-of-living adjustment in effect for a calendar year applies to annual compensation for the determination period that begins with or within such calendar year. If the determination period consists of fewer than twelve (12) months, the annual compensation limit is an amount equal to the otherwise applicable annual compensation limit multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months in the short determination period, and the denominator of which is twelve (12). If the compensation for any prior determination period is taken into account in determining a plan participant's contributions or benefits for the current plan year, the compensation for such prior determination period is subject to the applicable annual compensation limit in effect for that prior period.

- 2.3 The limits referenced in paragraphs 2.1 and 2.2 above apply only to years beginning after December 31, 1995, and only to individuals who first become plan participants in plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996. Individuals who become plan participants of before plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, are not subject to the limits of ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code. Instead, pursuant to ~~Section 13212(d)(3)(A) of OBRA '93~~ Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, and the regulations issued under that section, the annual compensation in effect under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 does not apply to any such plan participant in any plan year.

3.0 Trustee Transfers.

This section applies to distributions made on and after January 1, 1993. A distributee may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a transfer made from the Pension Fund.

- 3.1 Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or the life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten (10) years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income; and any other distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during the year. Effective January 1, 2002, a portion of a distribution will not fail to be an eligible rollover distribution merely because the portion consists of after-tax employee contributions that are not includible in gross income. However, such non-taxable portion may be transferred only to an individual retirement account or annuity described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 408(a) or (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or, in addition, on or after January 1, 2007, to a qualified defined benefit plan described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or to an annuity contract described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred (and earnings thereon), including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible.
- 3.2 Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is any of the following that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution:
- 3.2.1 ~~a~~An individual retirement account described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 408(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 3.2.2 ~~a~~An individual retirement annuity described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 408(b) of the Internal Revenue Code,
 - 3.2.3 ~~a~~An annuity plan described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 403(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 3.2.4 ~~a~~A qualified trust described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
 - 3.2.5 ~~e~~Effective January 1, 2002, an annuity contract described in ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code,
 - 3.2.6 ~~e~~Effective January 1, 2002, a plan eligible under ~~Internal Revenue Code~~ Section 457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 that is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or a political subdivision of a state that agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into the plan from the Pension Fund, or

- 3.3 Effective January 1, 2002, the definition of eligible rollover distribution also includes a distribution to a surviving spouse, or to a spouse or former spouse who is an alternate payee under a domestic relations order, as defined in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~.
- 3.4 Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. It also includes the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~. Effective July 1, 2007, a distributee further includes a nonspouse beneficiary who is a designated beneficiary as defined by ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(9)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~. However, a nonspouse beneficiary may rollover the distribution only to an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity established for the purpose of receiving the distribution and the account or annuity will be treated as an "inherited" individual retirement account or annuity.
- 3.5 Direct Rollover. A direct rollover is a payment by the Pension Fund to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

4.0 Maximum Benefit Limits and Maximum Contribution Limits.

- 4.1 Employee contributions paid to, and retirement benefits paid from, the Pension Fund may not exceed the annual limits on contributions and benefits, respectively, allowed by section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code Section 415 of 1986.
- 4.2 For purposes of applying these limits only and for no other purpose, the definition of compensation where applicable will be compensation actually paid or made available during a limitation year, except as noted below and as permitted by Treasury Regulation ~~Section~~ §1.415(c)-(2), or successor regulation. Specifically, compensation will be defined as wages within the meaning of ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 3401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ and all other payments of compensation to an employee by an employer for which the employer is required to furnish the employee a written statement under ~~Internal Revenue Code Sections 6041(d), 6051(a)(3) and 6052 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~. Compensation will be determined without regard to any rules under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 3401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ that limit the remuneration included in wages based on the nature or location of the employment or the services performed (such as the exception for agricultural labor in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 3401(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~).
- 4.2.1 However, for limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, compensation will also include amounts that would otherwise be included in compensation but for the an election under ~~Internal Revenue Code Sections 125(a), 402(e)(3), 402(h)(1)(B), 402(k), or 457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~. For limitation years beginning after December 30, 2000, compensation will also include any elective amounts that are not includible in the gross income of the employee by reason of ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 132(f)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~.
- 4.2.2 The definition of compensation will exclude employee contributions picked up under ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 414(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~.
- 4.2.3 For limitation years beginning on and after January 1, 2007, compensation for the limitation year will also include compensation paid by the later of 2 ½ months after an employee's severance from employment or the end of the limitation year that includes the date of the employee's severance from employment if the payment is regular compensation for services during the employee's regular working hours, or compensation for services outside the employee's regular working hours (such as overtime or shift differential), commissions, bonuses or other similar payments, and, absent a severance from employment, the payments would have been paid to the employee while the employee continue in employment with the employer.

Compensation shall also include payments for unused accrued bona fide sick, vacation or other leave that the member would have been able to use if employment had continued; and payments pursuant to a nonqualified unfunded deferred compensation plan, but only if the payments would have been paid to the member at the same time if the member had continued employment with the employer and only to the extent that the payment is includible in the member's gross income.

Any payments not described above are not considered compensation if paid after severance from employment, even if they are paid within 2½ months following severance from employment, except for payments to the individual who does not currently perform services for the employer by reason of qualified military service (within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) to the extent these payments do not exceed the amounts the individual would have received if the individual had continued to perform services for the employer rather than entering qualified military service.

- 4.2.4 Back pay, within the meaning of ~~Treas. Reg.~~ Treasury Regulation § 1.415(c)-2(g)(8), shall be treated as compensation for the limitation year to which the back pay relates to the extent the back pay represents wages and compensation that would otherwise be included under this definition.

An employee who is in qualified military service (within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) shall be treated as receiving compensation from the employer during such period of qualified military service equal to (i) the compensation the employee would have received during such period if the employee were not in qualified military service, determined based on the rate of pay the employee would have received from the employer but for the absence during the period of qualified military service, or (ii) if the compensation the employee would have received during such period was not reasonably certain, the employee's average compensation from the employer during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the qualified military service (or, if shorter, the period of employment immediately preceding the qualified military service).

- 4.3 Before January 1, 1995, a plan participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the limits specified in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~, subject to the applicable adjustments in that section. On and after January 1, 1995, a plan participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the dollar amount specified in ~~Internal Revenue Code Section 415(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~, subject to the applicable adjustments in Internal Revenue Code ~~Section § 415(b)~~.

- 4.4 On and after January 1, 2009, for purposes of applying the limits under ~~Internal Code Section 415(b) (Limit) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~, the following will apply:

- 4.4.1 ~~a~~A plan participant's applicable Limit will be applied to the plan participant's annual benefit in the first limitation year without regard to any automatic cost of living increases;

- 4.4.2 ~~¶~~To the extent the plan participant's annual benefit equals or exceeds the Limit, the plan participant will no longer be eligible for cost of living increases until such time as the benefit plus the accumulated increases are less than the Limit; and

- 4.4.3 ~~¶~~Thereafter, in any subsequent limitation year, the plan participant's annual benefit including any automatic cost of living increase applicable shall be tested under the then applicable benefit limit including any adjustment to the ~~Code Section 415(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ dollar limit under ~~Code Section 415(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ and the regulations thereunder; ~~and~~.

- 4.5 In no event shall a plan participant's annual benefit payable from the Pension Fund in any limitation year be greater than the limit applicable at the annuity starting date, as increased in subsequent years pursuant to ~~Code Section 415(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986~~ and the regulations thereunder. If the form of benefit without regard to the automatic benefit increase feature is not a straight life annuity or a qualified joint and survivor annuity, then the preceding sentence is applied by ~~reducing the Code Section 415(b) limit applicable at the annuity starting date~~ adjusting the form of benefit to an actuarially equivalent amount ~~{determined using the assumptions specified in Treasury Regulation §1.415(b)-1(c)(2)(ii)}~~ that takes into account the ~~death~~ additional benefits under the form of benefit: as follows:

For a benefit paid in a form to which section 417(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 does not apply (generally, a monthly benefit), the actuarially equivalent straight life annuity benefit that is the greater of:

The annual amount of the straight life annuity (if any) payable to the member under the plan commencing at the same annuity starting date as the form of benefit to the member, or

The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the form of benefit payable to the member, computed using a 5% interest assumption (or the applicable statutory interest assumption) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables described in Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Rulings 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986).

For a benefit paid in a form to which section 417(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 applies (generally, a lump sum benefit), the actuarially equivalent straight life annuity benefit that is the greatest of:

The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable, computed using the interest rate and mortality table, or tabular factor, specified in the plan for actuarial equivalence;

The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable, computed using a 5.5 percent interest assumption (or the applicable statutory interest assumption) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (the mortality table specified in Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Ruling 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986); or

The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable (computed using the applicable interest rate for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(3) (the 30-year Treasury rate (prior to January 1 2007, using the rate in effect for the month prior to retirement, and on and after January 1, 2007, using the rate in effect for the first day of the plan year with a one-year stabilization period)) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (the mortality table specified in Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Ruling 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986), divided by 1.05.

- 4.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Board may modify a request by a plan participant to make a contribution to the Pension Fund if the amount of the contribution would exceed the limits provided in section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code Section 415 of 1986 by using the following methods:
- 4.6.1 If the law requires a lump sum payment for the purchase of service credit, the Board may establish a periodic payment plan for the plan participant to avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under Internal Revenue Code Sections 415(c) or 415(n) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 4.6.2 If payment pursuant to paragraph Rule 4.6.1 will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits imposed by Internal Revenue Code Section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the Board may either reduce the plan participant's contribution to an amount within the limits of that section or refuse the plan participant's contribution.
- 4.7 Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, if a plan participant makes one or more contribution to purchase permissive service credit under the Pension Fund, then the requirements of this section will be treated as met only if:
- 4.7.1 ~~¶~~The requirements of Internal Revenue Code Section 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are met, determined by treating the accrued benefit derived from all such contributions as an annual benefit for purposes of Internal Revenue Code Section 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or
- 4.7.2 ~~¶~~The requirements of Internal Revenue Code Section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are met, determined by treating all such contributions as annual additions for purposes of Code Section 415(c).
- For purposes of applying subparagraph Rule 4.7.1 the Pension Fund will not fail to meet the reduced limit under Internal Revenue Code Section 415(b)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 solely by reason of this paragraph Rule 4.7, and for purposes of applying subparagraph Rule 4.7.2 the Pension Fund will not fail to meet the percentage limitation under Internal Revenue Code Section 415(c)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 solely by reason of this paragraph Rule 4.7.
- 4.7.3 For purposes of this ~~paragraph (g)~~ Rule 4.7 the term "permissive service credit" means service credit:
- 4.7.3.1 ~~¶~~Recognized by the Pension Fund for purposes of calculating a plan participant's benefit under the Pension Fund,
- 4.7.3.2 ~~w~~Which such plan participant has not received under the Pension Fund, and
- 4.7.3.3 ~~w~~Which such plan participant may receive only by making a voluntary additional contribution, in an amount determined under the Pension Fund, which does not exceed the amount necessary to fund the benefit attributable to such service credit.
- Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, such term may include service credit for periods for which there is no performance of service, and, notwithstanding clause 4.7.3.3, may include service credited in order to provide an increased benefit for service credit which a plan participant is receiving under the Pension Fund.
- 4.7.4 The Pension Fund will fail to meet the requirements of this paragraph Rule 4.7 if:
- 4.7.4.1 ~~m~~More than five years of nonqualified service credit are taken into account for purposes of this paragraph Rule 4.7.4, or
- 4.7.4.2 ~~a~~Any nonqualified service credit is taken into account under this paragraph Rule 4.7 before the plan participant has at least five (5) years of participation under the Pension Fund.

- 4.7.5 For purposes of ~~paragraph 4.7.4.2~~ Rule 4.7.4, effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, the term "nonqualified service credit" means permissive service credit other than that allowed with respect to:

- 3.1.4 Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. It also includes the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in Internal Revenue Code ~~Section 414(p)~~. Effective July 1, 2007, a distributee further includes a nonspouse beneficiary who is a designated beneficiary as defined by Internal Revenue Code ~~Section~~ 401(a)(9)(E). However, a nonspouse beneficiary may rollover the distribution only to an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity established for the purpose of receiving the distribution and the account or annuity will be treated as an "inherited" individual retirement account or annuity.

- 3.4-5 Direct Rollover. A direct rollover is a payment by the Pension Fund to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.
