

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
DIVISION OF SECURITIES

Statutory Authority: 6 Delaware Code, Section 7325 (6 Del.C. §7325)

FINAL

ORDER

Rules and Regulations Pursuant to the Delaware Securities Act

WHEREAS, on November 1, 2010, the Delaware Registrar of Regulations, pursuant to the request of the Securities Commissioner, caused proposed rules and regulations pursuant to the Delaware Securities Act to be published in the Delaware Register of Regulations. 14 DE Reg. 367 - 382 (11/1/10); and

WHEREAS, the proposed rules and regulations were held open for public comment until December 1, 2010; and

WHEREAS, no comments were received by the Commissioner during the comment period; and

WHEREAS, one comment was received by the Commissioner subsequent to the expiration of the comment period and was considered by the Commissioner prior to the issuance of the instant order;

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED this 20th day of December, 2010, that the following shall constitute the required summary of evidence and information submitted; the summary of findings of fact with respect to the evidence and information submitted; and decision to adopt the rules and regulations in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the effective date of these rules and regulations shall be January 14, 2011.

A. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE AND INFORMATION SUBMITTED

On December 2, 2010, the Commissioner received an e-mail from Alan M. Parness, Esq. at Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft in New York, New York, with comments regarding the proposed rules and regulations. Mr. Parness questioned the reference to SEC Rule 505 in section 500 of the proposed rules and regulations on the ground that a security offered under SEC Rule 505 is not a federal covered security. Mr. Parness also suggested that there is no statutory basis for proposed rule 502, which provides that A[t]he exemption under section 7309(b)(9) of the Act is withdrawn as to any security offered or sold in Delaware.

B. SUMMARY OF FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The language in subsections (a) through (e) of section 100 summarizing the provisions of the Delaware Securities Act is stricken as redundant.

2. Section 101, which describes the regulatory functions of the Delaware Securities Division, is repealed as unnecessary and redundant.

3. Section 102, which describes the general organization and operations of the Securities Division, is repealed as unnecessary and redundant.

4. A new section 102 is added to describe the process for obtaining interpretive opinions from the Securities Commissioner.

5. A new section 103 is added to address the vicarious liability of principals for violations of the Securities Act by their agents.

6. Section 202, which describes the business hours of the Securities Division, is repealed as unnecessary.

7. Section 205, which governs ex parte communications in administrative proceedings, is amended to clarify that ex parte communications with the Commissioner shall be prohibited upon the filing of a proposed decision by an administrative hearing officer. This change is being made to clarify that the prohibition on ex parte communications does not apply prior to the filing of a proposed decision by an administrative hearing officer.

8. The disclosure provisions at sections 227, 228, and 229 for administrative proceedings are repealed as unduly burdensome to the parties in such proceedings.

9. Sections 264 and 265 are amended to make clear that the Commissioner may issue summary orders sua sponte.

10. Section 304(b) is amended to make clear that no administrative subpoena under the Securities Act, except upon request by the Securities Division, may be issued to a complaining witness.

11. Section 402, which creates a special registration procedure for small company offerings, is repealed. Since its adoption in 1998, the registration procedure under section 402 has been a seldom used procedure for eligible offerings under the rule.

12. The proposed revision to section 500 (which governs the filing requirements for federal covered securities) to add a reference to SEC Rule 505 is not adopted, because securities offered under SEC Rule 505 are not federal covered securities.

13. Section 502, which imposes certain conditions on limited offerings being made under section 7309(b)(9) of the Securities Act, is repealed, and the limited offering exemption under section 7309(b)(9) is withdrawn. The General Assembly has by plain and unambiguous language in section 7309(b)(9) provided that the Commissioner may by rule or order, as to any security or transaction or any type of security or transaction, withdraw the exemption under section 7309(b)(9). Concerns raised by the commenter regarding the effect of the withdrawal of this exemption on the efforts of small businesses to raise capital can and should, in the opinion of the Commissioner, be addressed by way of a separate order of the Commissioner.

C. DECISION ADOPTING RULES AND REGULATIONS

Pursuant to 29 Del.C. §10118(b)(3), upon consideration of the information submitted to the Securities Commissioner, and based upon the findings of fact with respect to the information submitted, the Rules and Regulations Pursuant to the Delaware Securities Act, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, are adopted effective January 14, 2011. The rules and regulations are adopted pursuant to the authority granted in 6 Del.C. §§7303, 7309(b)(9), 7309A(b), 7319(b), and 7325(b).

Peter O. Jamison, III, Securities Commissioner

Rules and Regulations Pursuant to the Delaware Securities Act

Part A Organization and Functions of the Securities Division

100 General Statement and Statutory Authority

The Securities Division was created in 1973 with the passage of the Delaware Securities Act, which is found at Chapter 73 of Title 6 of the Delaware Code. The Securities Act is administered by the Attorney General through a Deputy Attorney General designated to act as Securities Commissioner. The Securities Commissioner is the principal executive officer of the Securities Division and acts for the Attorney General in administering that statute. The purpose of the Delaware Securities Act is to prevent the public from being victimized by unscrupulous or over-reaching broker-dealers, investment advisers or agents in the context of selling securities or giving investment advice, as well as to remedy any harm caused by securities law violations. ~~The Act provides for the following:~~

- ~~(a) Public disclosure of pertinent facts concerning public offerings of securities to Delaware investors, and protection of the interests of those investors in connection with the offer and sale of securities.~~
- ~~(b) Investigation of securities frauds, manipulations and other violations, and the imposition and enforcement of legal sanctions therefor.~~
- ~~(c) Registration and the regulation of certain activities of broker-dealers, broker-dealer agents and issuer agents.~~
- ~~(d) Registration and the regulation of certain activities of state-registered investment advisers and investment adviser representatives.~~
- ~~(e) Administrative sanctions, injunctive and other equitable remedies, and criminal prosecution. There are also private rights of action for investors injured by violations of the Act.~~

101 Regulatory Functions Repealed

~~Following is a brief description of the Securities Division's regulatory functions under the Delaware Securities Act:~~

~~(a) Securities Registration and Notice Filings.~~

- ~~(1) It is unlawful for any person to sell a security in Delaware unless that security is registered; or the security or transaction is exempt under Section 7309 of the Act; or the security is a federal covered security for which a notice filing has been made pursuant to Section 7309A of the Act. Securities for which a federal registration statement has been filed under the Securities Act of 1933 may be registered by coordination under Section 7305. Any security may be registered by qualification under Section 7306. To the extent permitted by federal law, notice filings are required for federal covered securities offered or sold to Delaware investors. A stop order prohibiting the offering of a security, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of a registration statement, may be issued where the offeror has made a material misstatement or omission in connection with that offer, or otherwise where the public interest so dictates and the statutory criteria of Section 7308 are met. Any registrant or offeror subject to such an order is entitled to a hearing under the Act. Registration or the filing of a notice filing is not a finding by the Commissioner as to the accuracy of the facts disclosed; and it is unlawful to so represent. Moreover, registration of securities or the filing of a notice filing does not imply approval of the issue by the~~ Commissioner or insure investors against loss in their investment, but serves rather to provide information upon which investors may make an informed and realistic evaluation of the features and worth of the securities.

(2) ~~Persons responsible for filing false information with the Commissioner or otherwise disseminating false and misleading information in connection with the purchase or sale of securities subject themselves to the risk of fine or imprisonment or both; and the issuing company, its directors, officers, and the underwriters and dealers and others may be liable in damages to purchasers of registered securities if disclosures are materially defective. In addition, the statute contains antifraud provisions which apply generally to the offer and sale of securities, whether or not registered.~~

(b) ~~Registration and Licensing of Broker-Dealers, Broker-Dealer Agents and Issuer Agents. The Act provides for registration with, and regulation by, the Commissioner of broker-dealers, broker-dealer agents and issuer agents. Registrations must be renewed annually. The activities of broker-dealers, broker-dealer agents and issuer agents in the conduct of their business are subject to the standards of the Act, which include a prohibition on dishonest or unethical practices, and which make unlawful those practices which would constitute fraud or deceit. Applications for registration may be denied, and registration may be suspended or revoked, where the public interest so dictates and the statutory criteria of Section 7316 are met. Any registrant subject to such an order is entitled to a hearing under the Act. Respondents in disciplinary hearings under Section 7316 may also be subject to fines, costs, orders requiring restitution and/or disgorgement, and other orders in the public interest, as well as criminal prosecution under Section 7322.~~

(c) ~~Registration and Licensing of Investment Advisers and Investment Adviser Representatives; Notice Filings for Federal Covered Advisers. The Act provides that persons who, for compensation, engage in the business of advising others with respect to securities transactions must register with the Commissioner unless they are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") or otherwise exempted from registration under the Act. Federal covered advisers (those registered with the SEC) who have a place of business in Delaware or who had more than five Delaware residents as clients in the past 12 months must file a notice filing and filing fee with the Commissioner as provided by Section 7314 of the Act. All investment adviser representatives of a state registered adviser who have a place of business in Delaware must register with the Commissioner. In addition, any investment adviser representative of a federal covered adviser must register with the Commissioner if the representative has a place of business in Delaware. As used in the Act and these rules, the terms "investment adviser representative" and "place of business" as used with respect to a representative of a federal covered adviser shall have the same meaning as found in SEC Rule 203A-3 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Registrations must be renewed annually. The activities of investment advisers and investment adviser representatives in the conduct of their business are subject to the standards of the Act, which include a prohibition on dishonest or unethical practices, and which make unlawful those practices which would constitute a fraud or deceit. Applications for registration may be denied, and registration may be suspended or revoked, where the public interest so dictates and the statutory criteria of Section 7316 are met. Any registrant subject to such an order is entitled to a hearing under the Act. Respondents in disciplinary hearings under Section 7316 may also be subject to fines, costs, orders requiring restitution and/or disgorgement, and other orders in the public interest, as well as criminal prosecution under Section 7322.~~

- (2) If a filing is not signed, the hearing officer shall strike the filing, unless it is signed promptly after the omission is called to the attention of the person making the filing.

214 Computation of Time

- (a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed in or allowed by these Rules of Practice or by order of the hearing officer, the day of the act, event or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or State legal holiday (as defined in §7.0), in which event the period runs until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or State legal holiday. Intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and State legal holidays shall be excluded from the computation when the period of time prescribed or allowed is seven days or less, not including any additional time allowed for service by mail in paragraph (16.2) of this section. If on the day a filing is to be made, weather or other conditions have caused the designated filing location to close, the filing deadline shall be extended to the end of the next day that is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor State legal holiday.

Pleadings and Prehearing Practice

220 Complaints: General

If the Securities Division believes that any person is violating or has violated any provision of the Delaware Securities Act or any rule or regulation thereunder, it may issue a complaint as set forth in Section 18.0. The complaint shall be served on each party as provided in Section 12.0 and filed at the time of service with the Securities Commissioner pursuant to Section 13.0. The service and filing of the complaint constitutes the commencement of the administrative proceeding. Upon the filing of a complaint, the Commissioner shall give notice to the Attorney General (or his or her designee) that the complaint has been filed and request that the Attorney General (or his or her designee) appoint a hearing officer to hear the matter.

13 DE Reg. 667 (11/01/09)

If the complaint consists of several causes of action, each cause shall be stated separately.

222 Complaints: Amendment and Withdrawal

- (a) At any time prior to the filing of a responsive pleading or the commencement of a hearing (whichever is earlier), the Securities Division may amend a complaint to include new matters of fact or law. After the filing of a responsive pleading or the commencement of a hearing, upon motion by the Securities Division, the hearing officer may permit amendment of a complaint to include new matters of fact or law.
- (b) At any time prior to the filing of a responsive pleading or the commencement of a hearing (whichever is earlier), the Securities Division may withdraw its complaint. Such withdrawal shall be without prejudice to refile, and the Securities Division shall be permitted to file a complaint based on allegations concerning the same facts and circumstances that are set forth in the withdrawn complaint. The Securities Division may withdraw its complaint after the filing of a responsive pleading or commencement of a hearing; however, upon motion of the respondent, the hearing officer, after considering the facts and circumstances of the withdrawal, shall determine whether the withdrawal shall be with prejudice.

271 Procedure

A party seeking review must file a written complaint with the Court of Chancery within 60 days of entry of the Commissioner's order. Where, from complaints received from members of the public, communications from Federal or State agencies, examination of filings made with the Division, or otherwise, it appears that there may be violations of the Securities Act, or the rules or regulations thereunder, a preliminary investigation is generally made. Unless otherwise ordered by the Division, all investigations are non-public and the reports thereon are for Division use only.

- (a) Except as provided in subsection 65.2 hereof, no investment company that is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or that has currently filed a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 is required to file with the Commissioner, either prior to the initial offer or after the initial offer in this state of a security which is a covered security under Section 18(b)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, a copy of any document which is part of a federal registration statement filed with the SEC or is part of an amendment to such federal registration statement; provided, however, that if an investment company does not file with the Commissioner a copy of its federal registration statement and any amendments thereto, together with a consent to service of process and the fees provided herein, such investment company shall, prior to the initial offer of such a covered security, file with the Commissioner a Form NF for such security, together with a consent to service of process signed by the issuer and a filing fee equal to one half of one percent of the maximum aggregate offering price of securities to be offered in Delaware in the initial offering, but not less than $200.00 or more than $1,000.00. An issuer that indicates on the Form NF that it is offering an "indefinite" amount of shares in Delaware shall pay a filing fee of $1,000.00.
- (b) An investment company that is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or that has filed a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 shall file, upon written request of the Commissioner and within the time period set forth in the request, a copy of any document identified in the request that is part of the federal registration statement filed with the SEC or part of an amendment of such federal registration statement.

Generally, this means that separate investment company "series" or "portfolios" will be treated as separate securities for purposes of notice filings under this section.

- (d) The initial filing of a Form NF by an investment company pursuant to paragraph (a) hereof is effective for one year commencing upon the later of receipt by the Commissioner of the Form NF and fees or the effectiveness of the offering with the Securities and Exchange Commission. 609 Dishonest or Unethical Practices

- (a) Each broker-dealer and broker-dealer agent registered in Delaware is required to observe high standards of commercial honor and just and equitable principles of trade in the conduct of their business. The acts and practices described below in this rule, among others, are considered contrary to such standards and may constitute grounds for denial, suspension or revocation of registration or such other action authorized by the Act.

- (b) Broker-Dealers. For the purposes of 6 Del.C. §7316(a)(7), dishonest or unethical practices by a broker-dealer shall include, but not be limited to, the following conduct:
- (1) Engaging in an unreasonable and unjustifiable delay in the delivery of securities purchased by any of its customers or in the payment, upon request, of free credit balances reflecting completed transactions of any of its customers, or failing to notify customers of their right to receive possession of any certificate of ownership to which they are entitled;
 - (2) Inducing trading in a customer's account that is excessive in size or frequency in view of the customer's investment objective, level of sophistication in investments, and financial situation and needs;
 - (3) Recommending a transaction without reasonable grounds to believe that such transaction is suitable for the customer in light of the customer's investment objective, level of sophistication in investments, financial situation and needs, and any other information material to the investment;
 - (4) Executing a transaction on behalf of a customer without prior authorization to do so;
 - (5) Exercising any discretionary power in effecting a transaction for a customer's account without first obtaining written discretionary authority from the customer, unless the discretionary power relates solely to the time and/or price for the execution of orders;
 - (6) Executing any transaction in a margin account without securing from the customer a properly executed written margin agreement promptly after the initial transaction in the account;
 - (7) Failing to segregate and identify customer's free securities or securities held in safekeeping;
 - (8) Hypothecating a customer's securities without having a lien thereon unless the broker-dealer secures from the customer a properly executed written consent promptly after the initial transaction, except as permitted by SEC regulations;
 - (9) Entering into a transaction with or for a customer at a price not reasonably related to the current market price of the security or receiving an unreasonable commission or profit (commissions or profits equal to 10% or more of the price of a security are presumed to be unreasonable);
 - (10) Failing to furnish to a customer purchasing securities in an offering, no later than the date of confirmation of the transaction, either a final prospectus or a preliminary prospectus and an additional document, which, together with the preliminary prospectus, includes all information set forth in the final prospectus;
 - (11) Charging unreasonable and inequitable fees for services performed, including miscellaneous services such as collection of monies due for principal, dividends or interest, exchange or transfer of securities, appraisals, safekeeping, or custody of securities and other services related to its securities business;
 - (12) Charging any fee for which no notice is given to the customer, and consent obtained, prior to the event incurring the fee;
 - (13) Offering to buy from or sell to any person any security at a stated price, unless such broker-dealer is prepared to purchase or sell, as the case may be, at such price and under such conditions as are stated at the time of such offer to buy or sell;
 - (14) Representing that a security is being offered to a customer "at the market" or a price relevant to the market price, unless such broker-dealer knows or has reasonable grounds to believe that a market for such security exists other than that made, created or controlled by such broker-dealer, or by any person for whom he is acting or with whom he is associated in such distribution, or any person controlled by, controlling or under common control with such broker-dealer;
 - (15) Effecting any transaction in, or inducing the purchase or sale of, any security by means of any manipulative or deceptive device, practice, plan, program, design or contrivance, that may include but not be limited to:
 - (i) Effecting any transaction in a security that involves no change in the beneficial ownership thereof;
 - (ii) Entering an order or orders for the purchase or sale of any security with the knowledge that an order or orders of substantially the same size, at substantially the same time and substantially the same price, for the sale of any such security, has been or will be entered by or for the same or different parties for the purpose of creating a false or misleading appearance of active trading in the security or false or misleading appearance with respect to the market for the security; provided, however, nothing in this subparagraph shall prohibit a broker-dealer from entering bona fide agency cross transactions for its customers; or
 - (iii) Effecting, or with one or more other persons, a series of transactions in any security creating actual or apparent active trading in such security or raising or depressing the price of such security for the purpose of inducing the purchase or sale of such security by others;

- (16) Guaranteeing a customer against loss in any securities account of such customer carried by the broker-dealer or in any securities transaction effected by the broker-dealer with or for such customer;
 - (17) Publishing or circulating or causing to be published or circulated, any notice, circular, advertisement, newspaper article, investment service, or communication of any kind that purports to report any transaction as a purchase or sale of any security, unless such broker-dealer believes that such transaction was a bona fide purchase or sale of such security; or that purports to quote the bid price or asked price for any security, unless such broker-dealer believes that such quotation represents a bona-fide bid for, or offer of, such security;
 - (18) Using any advertising or sales presentation in such a fashion as to be deceptive or misleading. An example of such practice would be a distribution of any nonfactual data, material, or presentation based on conjecture, unfounded or unrealistic claims or assertions in a brochure, flyer, or display by words, pictures, graphs or otherwise designed to supplement, detract from, supersede or defeat the purpose or effect of any prospectus or disclosure;
 - (19) Failing to disclose that the broker-dealer is controlled by, controlling, affiliated with or under common control with the issuer of any security before entering into any contract with or for a customer for the purchase or sale of such security, and, if such disclosure is not made in writing, it shall be supplemented by the giving or sending of written disclosure at or before the completion of the transaction;
 - (20) Failing to make a bona fide public offering of all the securities allotted to a broker-dealer for distribution, whether acquired as an underwriter or a selling group member, or from a member participating in the distribution as an underwriter or selling group member;
 - (21) Failing or refusing to furnish a customer, upon reasonable request, information to which he is entitled, including:
 - (i) with respect to a security recommended by the broker-dealer, material information that is reasonably available; and
 - (ii) a written response to any written request or complaint;
 - (22) Making a recommendation that one customer buy a particular security and that another customer sell that security, where the broker-dealer acts as a principal and such recommendations are made within a reasonably contemporaneous time period, unless individual suitability considerations or preferences justify the different recommendations;
 - (23) Where the broker-dealer holds itself out as a market maker in a particular security, or publicly quotes bid prices in a particular security, failing to buy that security from a customer promptly upon the customer's request to sell;
 - (24) Recommending a security to its customers without conducting a reasonable inquiry into the risks of that investment or communicating those risks to its agents and its customers in a reasonably detailed manner and with such emphasis as is necessary to make the disclosure meaningful;
 - (25) Representing itself as a financial or investment planner, consultant, or adviser, when the representation does not fairly describe the nature of the services offered, the qualifications of the person offering the services, and the method of compensation for the services;
 - (26) Falsifying any record or document or failing to create or maintain any required record or documents;
 - (27) Violating any ethical standard in the conduct rules promulgated by the National Association of Securities Dealers; or
 - (28) Aiding or abetting any of the conduct listed above.
- (c) Broker-Dealer Agents and Issuer Agents. For the purposes of 6 Del.C. §7316(a)(7), dishonest or unethical practices by a broker-dealer agent or an issuer agent shall include, but not be limited to, the following conduct:
- (1) Engaging in the practice of lending or borrowing money or securities from a customer, or acting as a custodian for money, securities or an executed stock power of a customer;

 - (3) Establishing or maintaining an account containing fictitious information in order to execute transactions that would otherwise be prohibited;
 - (4) Sharing directly or indirectly in profits or losses in the account of any customer without the written authorization of the customer and the broker-dealer that the agent represents;
 - (5) Dividing or otherwise splitting the agent's commissions, profits or other compensation from the purchase or sale of securities with any person not also registered as an agent for the same broker-dealer or for a broker-dealer under direct or indirect common control;

- (6) Where a recommendation is made that an unsophisticated customer purchase an over-the-counter security that (A) trades sporadically or in small volume, and (B) is not traded on any United States securities exchange (excluding the Spokane Exchange) or on the NASDAQ National Market System, failing to inform the customer that he may not be able to find a buyer if the customer would subsequently want to sell the security;
 - (7) Where a recommendation is made to purchase an over-the-counter security in which the asked price is greater than the bid by 25 percent or more, failing to inform the customer of the bid and the asked prices and of the significance of the spread between them should the customer wish to resell the security;
 - (8) Using excessively aggressive or high pressure sales tactics, such as repeatedly telephoning and offering securities to individuals who have expressed disinterest and have requested that the calls cease, or using profane or abusive language, or calling prospective customers at home at an unreasonable hour at night or in the morning;
 - (9) Conducting or facilitating securities transactions outside the scope of the agent's relationship with his broker-dealer employer unless he has provided prompt written notice to his employer;
 - (10) Acting or registering as an agent of more than one broker-dealer without giving written notification to and receiving written permission from all such broker-dealers; or

 - (12) Engaging in any of the conduct specified in subparagraph 90.2 above; or
 - (13) Aiding or abetting any of the conduct listed above.
- (d) Prohibited practices in connection with investment company shares. For purposes of 6 Del.C. §7316(a)(7), unethical practices by a broker-dealer, broker-dealer agent or issuer agent shall include, but not be limited to, the following conduct:

 - (2) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, stating or implying to a customer, either orally or in writing, that the shares are sold without a commission, are "no load" or have "no sales charge" if there is associated with the purchase of the shares a front-end loan, a contingent deferred sales load, a SEC Rule 12 b-1 fee or a service fee which exceeds .25 percent of average net fund assets per year, or in the case of closed-end investment company shares, underwriting fees, commissions or other offering expenses;
 - (3) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, failing to disclose to a customer any relevant sales charge discount on the purchase of shares in dollar amounts at or above a breakpoint or the availability of a letter of intent feature which will reduce the sales charges to the customer;
 - (4) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, recommending to a customer the purchase of a specific class of investment company shares in connection with a multi-class sales charge or fee arrangement without reasonable grounds to believe that the sales charge or fee arrangement associated with such class of shares is suitable and appropriate based on the customer's investment objectives, financial situation and other securities holdings, and the associated transaction or other fees;
 - (5) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, recommending to a customer the purchase of investment company shares which results in the customer simultaneously holding shares in different investment company portfolios having similar investment objectives and policies without reasonable grounds to believe that such recommendation is suitable and appropriate based on the customer's investment objectives, financial situation and other securities holdings, and any associated transaction charges or other fees;
 - (6) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, recommending to a customer the liquidation or redemption of investment company shares for the purpose of purchasing shares in a different investment company portfolio having similar investment objectives and policies without reasonable grounds to believe that such recommendation is suitable and appropriate based on the customer's investment objectives, financial situation and other securities holdings and any associated transaction charges or other fees;
 - (7) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, stating or implying to a customer, either orally or in writing, the fund's current yield or income without disclosing the fund's most recent average annual total return, calculated in a manner prescribed in SEC Form N-1A, for one, five and ten year periods and fully explaining the difference between current yield and total return; provided, however, that if the fund's registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 has been in effect for less than one, five, or ten years, the time during which the registration statement was in effect shall be substituted for the periods otherwise prescribed;

- (8) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, stating or implying to a customer, either orally or in writing, that the investment performance of an investment company portfolio is comparable to that of a savings account, certificate of deposit or other bank deposit account without disclosing to the customer that the shares are not insured or otherwise guaranteed by the FDIC or any other government agency and the relevant differences regarding risk, guarantees, fluctuation of principal and/or return, and any other factors which are necessary to ensure that such comparisons are fair, complete and not misleading;
 - (9) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, stating or implying to a customer, either orally or in writing, the existence of insurance, credit quality, guarantees or similar features regarding securities held, or proposed to be held, in the investment company's portfolio without disclosing to the customer other kinds of relevant investment risks, including but not limited to, interest rate, market, political, liquidity, or currency exchange risks, which may adversely affect investment performance and result in loss and/or fluctuation of principal notwithstanding the creditworthiness of such portfolio securities;
 - (10) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, stating or implying to a customer, either orally or in writing,
 - (i) that the purchase of such shares shortly before an ex-dividend date is advantageous to such customer unless there are specific, clearly described tax or other advantages to the customer, or
 - (ii) that a distribution of long-term capital gains by an investment company is part of the income yield from an investment in such shares;
 - (11) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, making representations to a customer, either orally or in writing, that the broker-dealer or agent knows or has reason to know are based in whole or in part on information contained in dealer-use-only material which has not been approved for public distribution; or
 - (12) Aiding or abetting any of the conduct listed above.
 - (13) In connection with the offer or sale of investment company shares, the delivery of a prospectus shall not be dissipative that the broker-dealer or agent has fulfilled the duties set forth in the subparagraphs of this rule.
- (e) The conduct set forth above is not exclusive. Engaging in other conduct such as forgery, embezzlement, theft, exploitation, nondisclosure, incomplete disclosure or misstatement of material facts, manipulative or deceptive practices, or aiding or abetting any unethical practice, shall be deemed an unethical business practice and shall also be grounds for denial, suspension or revocation of registration.

Such record shall state the title and amount of the security involved; the date and nature of the transaction (i.e., purchase, sale or other acquisition or disposition); the price at which it was effected; and the name of the broker-dealer or bank with or through whom the transaction was effected. Such record may also contain a statement declaring that the reporting or recording of any such transaction shall not be construed as an admission that the investment adviser or advisory representative has any direct or indirect beneficial ownership in the security. "Control" shall have the same meaning as that set forth in Section 2(a)(9) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.
 - (iv) An investment adviser shall not be deemed to have violated the provisions of this subdivision 98.1.13 because of his failure to record securities transactions of any advisory representative if he establishes that he instituted adequate procedures and used reasonable diligence to obtain promptly reports of all transactions required to be recorded.
- (14) A copy of each written statement and each amendment or revision thereof, given or sent to any client or prospective client of such investment adviser in accordance with the provisions of Rule 709(a)(16), and a record of the dates that each written statement, and each amendment or revision thereof, was given, or offered to be given, to any client or prospective client who subsequently becomes a client.

- (d) Any books or records required by this Rule may be maintained by the investment adviser in such manner that the identity of any client to whom such investment adviser renders investment advisory services is indicated by numerical or alphabetical code or some similar designation.
- (e)
 - (1) All books and records required to be made under the provisions of subsections (a) to (c), inclusive, of this Rule shall be maintained and preserved in an easily accessible place for a period of not less than five years from the end of the fiscal year during which the last entry was made on such record, the first two years in an appropriate office of the investment adviser. (2) Partnership articles and any amendments thereto, articles of incorporation, charters, minute books, and stock certificate books of the investment adviser and of any predecessor, shall be maintained in the principal office of the investment adviser and preserved until at least three years after termination of the enterprise.

 - (2) Pursuant to this paragraph 98.7 an adviser may maintain and preserve on computer tape or disk or other computer storage medium records which, in the ordinary course of the adviser's business, are created by the adviser on electronic media or are received by the adviser solely on electronic media or by electronic data transmission.
- (h) For purposes of this rule "investment supervisory services" means the giving of continuous advice as to the investment of funds on the basis of the individual needs of each client.

- (a) Investment advisers and investment adviser representatives who use the Internet to distribute information on available products and services through communications made on the Internet directed generally to anyone having access to the Internet, and transmitted through postings on "Bulletin Boards", displays on "Home Pages" or otherwise (an "Internet Communication") shall not be deemed to be "transacting business" in Delaware for purposes of Section 7313 of the Act based solely on the Internet Communication if the following conditions are met:
 - (1) The Internet Communication contains a legend in which it is clearly stated that:
 - (i) The investment adviser or representative in question may only transact business in a state requiring registration if first registered, excluded or exempted from state investment adviser or representative registration requirement, as the case may be; and

Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to relieve a state registered investment adviser or representative from any applicable securities registration requirement in Delaware;
- (3) The Internet Communication does not involve the rendering of personalized advice for compensation in Delaware over the Internet, but is limited to the dissemination of general information on products and services; and
- (4) In the case of a representative:

- (9) Providing a report or recommendation prepared by someone other than the adviser to any advisory client prepared by someone other than the adviser without disclosing the fact; provided, however, that this prohibition does not apply to a situation where the adviser uses published research reports or statistical analyses to render advice or where an adviser orders such a report in the normal course of providing service.

discretionary power to the adviser, and that no assignment of such contract shall be made by the investment adviser without the consent of the other party to the contract. The information required by Part II of form ADV may be disclosed in a document advisory contract, so long as it is disclosed at the time the contract is entered into, extended or renewed.

Engaging in other conduct such as forgery, embezzlement, theft, exploitation, non-disclosure, incomplete disclosure or misstatement of material facts, manipulative or deceptive practices, or aiding or abetting any unethical practice, shall be deemed an unethical business practice and shall also be grounds for denial, suspension or revocation of registration. The federal statutory and regulatory provisions referenced herein shall apply to all investment advisers, federal covered advisers and investment adviser representatives only to the extent permitted by the National Securities Markets Improvement Act of 1996 (Pub.
