6.0 Return to Work Post-retirement

- 6.1 Separation from service with the state: The IRS requires that any retired employee contemplating reemployment with the State shall have a separation from service from the State for a period of at least six (6) months, if the employee is under the age of 65.
- 6.2 No pre-arranged agreement to reemploy: Individuals and their employers shall certify, at the time of retirement, that there has been no preexisting Plan between the individual and the employer to return to work with an employer participating in the Plan after such retirement, in a manner as required by the Board.
- 6.3 Direct employment: Any individual under the age of 65 who contracts directly with an employer participating in the Plan shall jointly certify, in a manner prescribed by the Board, that there has been at least a six (6) month separation of service.
- 6.4 Indirect employment: Any individual under the age of 65 who is employed by or through any private enterprise that has a contract with an employer participating in the Plan shall jointly certify in a manner prescribed by the Board, that such employment is in compliance with 29 Del.C. §5502.

7.0 Maximum Income Limits [Compliance with Code §401(a)(17); IRS-approved language]

- 7.1 Effective with respect to plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, and before January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of a plan participant which exceeds $150,000 (as indexed under §401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) shall be disregarded for purposes of determining benefits or employee contributions. Effective only for the 1996 plan year, in determining the compensation of an employee eligible for consideration, §414(g)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall apply, except that in applying such rules, the term "family" shall include only the spouse of the member and any lineal descendants of the employee who have not attained age nineteen (19) before the close of the year.
- 7.2 Effective with respect to plan years beginning on and after January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of a plan participant which exceeds $200,000, as adjusted for cost-of-living increases in accordance with §401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, may not be taken into account in determining benefits or employee contributions for any plan year. Annual compensation means compensation during the Plan year or such other consecutive twelve (12) month period over which compensation is otherwise determined under the Plan (the determination period). The cost-of-living adjustment in effect for a calendar year applies to annual compensation for the determination period that begins with or within such calendar year. If the determination period consists of fewer than twelve (12) months, the annual compensation limit is an amount equal to the otherwise applicable annual compensation limit multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months in the short determination period, and the denominator of which is twelve (12). If the compensation for any prior determination period is taken into account in determining a plan participant's contributions or benefits for the current plan year, the compensation for such prior determination period is subject to the applicable annual compensation limit in effect for that prior period.
- 7.3 The limits referenced in subsections 8.1 and 8.2 above apply only to years beginning after December 31, 1995, and only to individuals who first become plan participants in plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996. Individuals who become plan participants of before plan years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, are not subject to the limits of §401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Instead, pursuant to section 13212(d)(3)(A) of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 (OBRA), and the regulations issued under that section, the annual compensation in effect under section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 does not apply to any such plan participant in any plan year.

8.0 Direct Rollover and Trustee to Trustee Transfers [Compliance with Code §401(a)(31); IRS-approved language]

- 8.1 For purposes of compliance with §401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code, this section applies notwithstanding any contrary provision or retirement law that would otherwise limit a distributee's election to make a rollover. A distributee may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover from the Pension Fund.

- 8.2 Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include:
- 8.2.1 Any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or the life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more;
 - 8.2.2 Any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under §401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;
 - 8.2.3 The portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income, provided, however, a portion of a distribution shall not fail to be an eligible rollover distribution merely because the portion consists of after-tax employee contributions that are not includible in gross income, but such portion may be transferred only:
 - 8.2.3.1 To an individual retirement account or annuity described in §408(a) or (b) of the Internal Revenue Code or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in §401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred (and earnings thereon), including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible;
 - 8.2.3.2 On or after January 1, 2007, to a qualified defined benefit plan described in §401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or to an annuity contract described in §403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred (and earnings thereon), including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible; or
 - 8.2.3.3 On or after January 1, 2008, to a Roth IRA described in §408A of the Internal Revenue Code; and
 - 8.2.4 Any other distribution which the Internal Revenue Service does not consider eligible for rollover treatment, such as certain corrective distributions necessary to comply with the provisions of §415 of the Internal Revenue Code or any distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during the year.
- 8.3 Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is any of the following that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution:
- 8.3.1 An individual retirement account described in §408(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;
 - 8.3.2 An individual retirement annuity described in §408(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;
 - 8.3.3 An annuity plan described in §403(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;
 - 8.3.4 A qualified trust described in §401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;
 - 8.3.5 An annuity contract described in §403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;
 - 8.3.6 A plan eligible under §457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 that is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or a political subdivision of a state that agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into the Plan from the Pension Fund;
 - 8.3.7 A Roth IRA described in §408A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or
 - 8.3.8 Effective January 1, 2015, a SIMPLE IRA that has been established for at least two years.
- 8.4 The definition of eligible rollover distribution also includes a distribution to a surviving spouse, or to a spouse or former spouse who is an alternate payee under a domestic relations order, as defined in §414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 8.5 Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. It also includes the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in §414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Effective July 1, 2007, a distributee further includes a nonspouse beneficiary who is a designated beneficiary as defined by §401(a)(9)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. However, a nonspouse beneficiary may rollover the distribution only to an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity established for the purpose of receiving the distribution and the account or annuity will be treated as an "inherited" individual retirement account or annuity.
- 8.6 Direct Rollover. A direct rollover is a payment by the Pension Fund to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

9.0 Maximum Benefit Limits and Maximum Contribution Limits [Compliance with Code §415; IRS-approved language]

- 9.1 Employee contributions paid to, and retirement benefits paid from, the Pension Fund may not exceed the annual limits on contributions and benefits, respectively, allowed by §415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 9.2 Compensation: For purposes of applying these limits only and for no other purpose, the definition of compensation where applicable will be compensation actually paid or made available during a limitation year, except as noted below and as permitted by Treasury Regulation §1.415(c)-(2), or successor regulation. Specifically, compensation will be defined as wages within the meaning of section 3401(a) and all other payments of compensation to an employee by an employer for which the employer is required to furnish the employee a written statement under sections 6041(d), 6051(a)(3) and 6052 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Compensation will be determined without regard to any rules under Internal Revenue Code §3401(a) that limit the remuneration included in wages based on the nature or location of the employment or the services performed (such as the exception for agricultural labor in §3401(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986).
 - 9.2.1 However, for limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, compensation will also include amounts that would otherwise be included in compensation but for an election under §§125(a), 402(e)(3), 402(h)(1)(B), 402(k), or 457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. For limitation years beginning after December 31, 2000, compensation will also include any elective amounts that are not includible in the gross income of the employee by reason of §132(f)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
 - 9.2.2 The definition of compensation will exclude employee contributions picked up under §414(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
 - 9.2.3 For limitation years beginning on and after January 1, 2007, compensation for the limitation year will also include compensation paid by the later of 2 ½ months after an employee's severance from employment or the end of the limitation year that includes the date of the employee's severance from employment if:
 - 9.2.3.1 The payment is regular compensation for services during the employee's regular working hours, or compensation for services outside the employee's regular working hours (such as overtime or shift differential), commissions, bonuses or other similar payments, and, absent a severance from employment, the payments would have been paid to the employee while the employee continue in employment with the employer; or
 - 9.2.3.2 The payment is for unused accrued bona fide sick, vacation, or other leave that the member would have been able to use if employment had continued; or
 - 9.2.3.3 The payment is pursuant to a nonqualified unfunded deferred compensation plan, but only if the payments would have been paid to the member at the same time if the member had continued employment with the employer and only to the extent that the payment is includible in the member's gross income.
 - 9.2.3.4 Any payments not described above are not considered compensation if paid after severance from employment, even if they are paid within 2 ½ months following severance from employment, except for payments to the individual who does not currently perform services for the employer by reason of qualified military service (within the meaning of §414(u)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) to the extent these payments do not exceed the amounts the individual would have received if the individual had continued to perform services for the employer rather than entering qualified military service.
 - 9.2.4 Back Pay. Back pay, within the meaning of Treasury Regulation §1.415(c)-2(g)(8), shall be treated as compensation for the limitation year to which the back pay relates to the extent the back pay represents wages and compensation that would otherwise be included under this definition.
 - 9.2.5 Qualified Military Service. An employee who is in qualified military service (within the meaning of §414(u)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) shall be treated as receiving compensation from the employer during such period of qualified military service equal to (i) the compensation the employee would have received during such period if the employee were not in qualified military service, determined based on the rate of pay the employee would have received from the employer but for the absence during the period of qualified military service, or (ii) if the compensation the employee would have received during such period was not reasonably certain, the employee's average compensation from the employer during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the qualified military service (or, if shorter, the period of employment immediately preceding the qualified military service).

- 9.3 Basic 415(b) Limitation. Before January 1, 1995, a plan participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the limits specified in §415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, subject to the applicable adjustments in that section. On and after January 1, 1995, a plan participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the dollar amount specified in §415(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, subject to the applicable adjustments in §415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. In no event shall a plan participant's annual benefit payable from the Pension Fund in any limitation year be greater than the limit applicable at the annuity starting date, as increased in subsequent years pursuant to §415(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the regulations thereunder.
- 9.4 On and after January 1, 2009, for purposes of applying the limits under §415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the following will apply:
- 9.4.1 A plan participant's applicable limit will be applied to the Plan participant's annual benefit in the first limitation year without regard to any automatic cost of living increases;
- 9.4.2 To the extent the Plan participant's annual benefit equals or exceeds the limit, the Plan participant will no longer be eligible for cost of living increases until such time as the benefit plus the accumulated increases are less than the limit; and
- 9.4.3 Thereafter, in any subsequent limitation year, the Plan participant's annual benefit including any automatic cost of living increase applicable shall be tested under the then applicable benefit limit including any adjustment to the §415(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 dollar limit under §415(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the regulations thereunder.
- 9.5 Non-Straight Life Annuity. If the benefit under the Plan is other than a straight life annuity, then the benefit shall be adjusted so that it is the equivalent of the annual benefit, using factors prescribed in Treasury Regulations. If the form of benefit without regard to the automatic benefit increase feature is not a straight life annuity or a qualified joint and survivor annuity, then the preceding sentence is applied by adjusting the form of benefit to an actuarially equivalent amount (determined using the assumptions specified in Treasury Regulation §1.415(b)-1(c)(2)(ii)) that takes into account the additional benefits under the form of benefit as follows:
- 9.5.1 For a benefit paid in a form to which §417(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 does not apply (generally, a monthly benefit), the actuarially equivalent straight life annuity benefit that is the greater of:
- 9.5.1.1 The annual amount of the straight life annuity (if any) payable to the member under the Plan commencing at the same annuity starting date as the form of benefit to the member; or
- 9.5.1.2 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the form of benefit payable to the member, computed using a 5% interest assumption (or the applicable statutory interest assumption) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables described in Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Rulings 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in §417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing §417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986).
- 9.5.2 Lump Sum Benefit. For a benefit paid in a form to which §417(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 applies (generally, a lump sum benefit), the actuarially equivalent straight life annuity benefit that is the greatest of:
- 9.5.2.1 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable, computed using the interest rate and mortality table, or tabular factor, specified in the Plan for actuarial equivalence;
- 9.5.2.2 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable, computed using a 5.5 percent interest assumption (or the applicable statutory interest assumption) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (the mortality table specified in Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Ruling 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in §417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing §417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986); or

- 9.5.2.3 The annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the particular form of benefit payable (computed using the applicable interest rate for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(3) (the 30-year Treasury rate (prior to January 1, 2007, using the rate in effect for the month prior to retirement, and on and after January 1, 2007, using the rate in effect for the first day of the Plan year with a one-year stabilization period)) and (i) for years prior to January 1, 2009, the applicable mortality tables for the distribution under Treasury Regulation § 1.417(e)-1(d)(2) (the mortality table specified in Revenue Ruling 2001-62 or any subsequent Revenue Ruling modifying the applicable provisions of Revenue Ruling 2001-62), and (ii) for years after December 31, 2008, the applicable mortality tables described in § 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Notice 2008-85 or any subsequent Internal Revenue Service guidance implementing § 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986), divided by 1.05.
- 9.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Board may modify a request by a plan participant to make a contribution to the Pension Fund if the amount of the contribution would exceed the limits provided in § 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 by using the following methods:
- 9.6.1 If the law requires a lump sum payment for the purchase of service credit, the Board may establish a periodic payment plan for the Plan participant to avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under §§ 415(c) or 415(n) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 9.6.2 If payment pursuant to subsection 4.6.1 will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits imposed by §§ 415(c) or 415(n) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the Board may either reduce the Plan participant's contribution to an amount within the limits of that section or refuse the Plan participant's contribution.
- 9.7 Permissive Service Credit Contributions after December 31, 1997. Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, if a plan participant makes one or more contribution to purchase permissive service credit under the Pension Fund, then the requirements of this section will be treated as met only if:
- 9.7.1 The requirements of § 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are met, determined by treating the accrued benefit derived from all such contributions as an annual benefit for purposes of § 415(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or
- 9.7.2 The requirements of § 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are met, determined by treating all such contributions as annual additions for purposes of § 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- 9.7.3 For purposes of applying subsection 9.7.1 of this regulation the Pension Fund will not fail to meet the reduced limit under § 415(b)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 solely by reason of this subsection 9.7 of this regulation, and for purposes of applying subsection 9.2.2, the Pension Fund will not fail to meet the percentage limitation under § 415(c)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 solely by reason of subsection 9.7 of this regulation.
- 9.7.4 For purposes of subsections 9.7 and 9.8 of this regulation, the term "permissive service credit" means service credit that is:
- 9.7.4.1 Recognized by the Pension Fund for purposes of calculating a plan participant's benefit under the Pension Fund,
- 9.7.4.2 Which such plan participant has not received under the Pension Fund, and
- 9.7.4.3 Which such plan participant may receive only by making a voluntary additional contribution, in an amount determined under the Pension Fund, which does not exceed the amount necessary to fund the benefit attributable to such service credit.
- 9.8 Permissive Service Credit Contributions after December 31, 1997. Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, such term may include service credit for periods for which there is no performance of service, and, notwithstanding subsection 9.7.4.3 of this regulation, may include service credited in order to provide an increased benefit for service credit which a plan participant is receiving under the Pension Fund.
- 9.8.1 The Pension Fund will fail to meet the requirements of this subsection 9.8 of this regulation if:
- 9.8.1.1 More than five (5) years of nonqualified service credit are taken into account for purposes of this subsection 9.8 of this regulation; or
