3.0 Grant Award Process

- 3.1 Organizational Grants. Organizational grants reviewed on an annual basis or for multi-year approval are reviewed by impartial peer review panels, (hereinafter "Grant Panels.") The decision to use private citizens on grant review Grant Panels reflects the importance of having diverse public and expert participation in the grant-making process.
 - 3.1.1 Grant panels: Composition:

Individuals who work or live in Delaware are eligible to serve on Grant Panels. Grant Panels are composed of artists, arts educators, arts and nonprofit organization administrators, corporate and fund raising managers, knowledgeable arts specialists, and interested community members. Panelists are chosen for their professional experience, expertise in an artistic discipline, knowledge of the community, and ability to objectively review grant materials. The Division convenes Grant Panels, mindful of Delaware's demographic and geographic diversity. Additional out-of-state panelists may be selected in order to incorporate regional or national perspective, to provide additional expertise and diversity, or to mitigate the potential for conflicts of interest.

3.1.2 Conflicts of Interests

Grant Panelists are screened for conflicts of interest, and where they exist, panelists are recused from discussion of the grant application or assigned to an alternate panel where a conflict does not exist. Such conflicts are determined by review of statements and/or applications filed by Arts Council members, Division Staff, panelists, and Grantees

3.1.3 Nominations

Grant Panelist nominations are accepted and processed by the Division of the Arts year round.

3.1.4 Grant Review Panel Meetings

Grant Panel meetings are public, posted and held in accordance with 29 Del.C. Ch. 100. Meetings are chaired by a member of the State Arts Council or Division of the Arts staff.

3.1.5 Grant Review Process

Grant Panelists evaluate and rank applications according to grant specific criteria identified by Division staff, and published at <http://www.artsdel.org/grants> <https://arts.delaware.gov/grant-overview/>. Grant Panel comments and rankness are incorporated into the funding recommendation process, and made available to applicants upon notification of the funding decision. At the conclusion of their review, the Grant Panel makes a recommendation to the State Arts Council.

3.1.6 Grant Award

The State Arts Council, at a meeting open to the public consistent with 29 Del.C. Ch. 100, reviews the Grant Panel recommendations and rankings of applicants, to match them with available grant funds. At the conclusion of this review, the State Arts Council makes funding recommendations to the Division Director, who is responsible for all final funding decisions. The Division announces grant awards after the approval of the State's fiscal year budget.

3.2 Artist Fellowship Grants

Delaware's arts community is very close-knit, and individual artists tend to be very familiar with the work of other Delaware artists. The nature of artists' work is that it is inextricably linked to them as individuals. Because of that, it is difficult to find impartial judges to adjudicate Fellowship applications for individual artists. Consequently, the Division of the Arts contracts with an out-of-state organization to facilitate the review of Artist Fellowship applications. Grant specific criteria are published at <http://www.artsdel.org/grants> <https://arts.delaware.gov/grant-overview/>.

3.2.1 Grant panels: Composition:

The facilitating organization presents a list of potential judges to Division staff, who selects the judges whose expertise most clearly aligns with the applications submitted each year. Out-of-state judges are chosen for their professional experience, expertise in an artistic discipline, and ability to objectively review grant materials.

3.2.2 Grant Review Process

Applications are submitted to the Division of the Arts. Upon review for completeness and accuracy, all materials are forwarded directly to the facilitating organization, which is responsible for distribution of the applications to the judges. Judges review the applications individually and submit their scores and comments to the facilitating organization. Scores and judges' comments are then forwarded to the Division staff. Division staff members present a list of funding recommendations, based on scores and available funds, to the State Arts Council for review at a public meeting.

3.2.3 Grant Award

The State Arts Council conducts a public review of the recommendations from Division staff in accordance with 29 Del.C. Ch. 100. At the conclusion of the public review, the State Arts Council makes its funding recommendations to the Division Director, who is responsible for all final funding decisions. Fellowship awards are announced after public approval by the State Arts Council and Division Director.

3.3 Short-term grants and Special Projects, and Interagency Partnerships

3.3.1 Grant Panelist Selection-

Short-term (non-annual) grant applications, special project grant applications, and interagency partnership agreements are assigned by the Division Director to the program specialist whose purview includes the arts discipline or project category.

3.3.2 Grant review process

Division staff review and evaluate short-term, special project grant applications according to criteria developed by Division staff and published with the grant guidelines. Staff recommendations are submitted to the Division Director for review.

3.3.3 Grant Award

The Division Director reviews staff recommendations and makes final funding decisions. Notification letters are sent out within six weeks of the application submission deadline. Funding decisions are presented to the State Arts Council at their quarterly meetings.

4.0 Appeals

4.1 Applicants may appeal funding decisions only on the basis of procedural error or impropriety. Dissatisfaction with the amount of an award, or a decision not to fund a project, is not sufficient reason for appeal.

4.2 Standard of Review:

Grant determinations may be reconsidered if the Division Director determines that the application was reviewed on the basis of criteria other than those appearing in the published guidelines for that grant category; that Grant Panelists or Council members were influenced by Council members who failed to disclose conflicts of interest, or that erroneous information was provided by staff, panelists, or Council members at the time of the application's review, and such erroneous information was relied upon by the Grant Panel, Council, or Division Director in making the grant determination.

4.3 Procedure for Appeal

4.3.1 Consultation

Prior to submitting an appeal, applicants should first consult with the staff member assigned to the application to review the panel comments and considerations.

4.3.2 Written Request for Appeal

After consulting with the assigned staff member, if the applicant wishes to pursue an appeal, the appeal must be sent in writing to the Division Director within 30 days of the date notifying the applicant of the funding decision. The letter should contain evidence to support one or more of the grounds for appeal noted in 4.1.

4.3.3 Review

The Director will notify the Chair of the State Arts Council of the appeal. The Director and Chair will review the appeal and, at their discretion, will make a ruling or submit the appeal to the full Council for review and recommendation.

4.3.4 Notification

The Director will notify the applicant in writing of the ruling on the appeal.

4.3.5 Arts Council Review

After reviewing the appeal letter determination, the applicant may request a public hearing with the Council, pursuant to 29 Del.C. Ch. 100. At the conclusion of the public hearing, the Council will reconsider the appeal and make a final ruling. A simple majority vote of the Council will determine the appeal outcome.
